Trump

US president Donald Trump said he had cancelled planned strikes on Iran. The desperate president, who is flailing and failing to find an off-ramp from the war he started, took to social media to announce the move.

Trump said:

Based on the fact that discussions with the Islamic Republic of Iran have been brought to the highest level of Iranian leadership and approved, I have, as President of the United States of America, cancelled the scheduled strikes and bombings against Iran this evening.

Adding

Discussions and final points have been, in both concept and great detail, approved by all parties involved, including the United States, Israel, Saudi Arabia, UAE, Qatar, Turkey, Pakistan, Bahrain, Kuwait, Jordan, Egypt, and others. The Naval Blockade will remain in full force and effect until this Transaction is finalized â?? Time and place of the signing to be announced shortly.

It is not clear if Trump has simply concocted the whole notion of â??Iran coming to him with new termsâ??.

Trumpâ??s failing war keeps getting worse

The US killed three Indian seafarers on 10 June in yet another PR disaster for Trumpâ??s failing war. The US also managed to hit two Iranian reservoirs, leaving 20,000 civilians without drinking water. The strikes were in response to the shooting down of a US Apache helicopter.

So much for the â??hearts and mindsâ?? approach to winning wars in the regionâ?!

Meanwhile unverified footage emerged which claimed to show Iranian munitions hitting US jets at a Jordanian airfield:

US-Israel attacked Iran first on 28 February without provocation. Iran was offering unprecedented concessions in negotiations at the time. The Pentagon has since stated there was no imminent threat from Iran. And the UNâ??s atomic watchdog, the IAEA, has said there is no evidence Iran was developing a nuclear weapon.

The US has achieved none of its original war aims. Iran predictably closed the Straits of Hormuz, a vital oil channel, once attacked â?? creating a global energy crisis. Far from being defeated, Iran has said the war will continue until â??the enemyâ??s inevitable and permanent humiliation, disgrace, regret, and surrenderâ?*. Trump came to power on an anti-war â??America Firstâ?? ticket. He now faces worldwide humiliation.
