Iran foreign minister Abbas Araghchi has responded to Israel's attempts to reject Donald Trump's supposed ceasefire memorandum of understanding with Iran. Araghchi warned Israel and Trump that there is no prospect of any agreement to end the illegal US-Israel war unless Israel gets out of Lebanon completely:

The end of the war will not be complete without the withdrawal of Israeli forces from the territories they occupied in Lebanon. Any military attack by Israel on Lebanon and the continued occupation of Lebanese territories from now on, in our opinion, is a violation of the MoU.
