

Leak links Boris Johnson to Farage's £5m sugar daddy

Description

Nigel Farage, Boris Johnson, and Christopher Harborne

Nigel Farage is facing serious scrutiny right now because of a £5m gift he accepted from a dubious, foreign-based crypto billionaire. And as reported by Nerve News, Boris Johnson also accepted a gift from the same man:

NEW: Boris Johnson failed to declare to parliament a gift of private jet flights from the same cryptobillionaire, Christopher Harborne who gave £5m to Nigel Farage, leaked documents reveal.

Isn't Reform UK supposed to be the alternative to the Conservative Party?

Because the donors don't seem to have got the memo.

Farage's Scandalous

Earlier this year, we learned that Farage had failed to declare a £5m lump sum he received from crypto billionaire Christopher Harborne. As Alonso Gurmendi summarised

Here are the facts as laid down by Derbyshire:

- 1) Farage says he won't run
- 2) crypto billionaire pays him £5mill
- 3) Farage U-turns and runs
- 4) Farage hides the donation
- 5) Farage announces if he wins the election he will slash capital gains tax for crypto firms

Same old same old

Farage is facing multiple investigations into this. And between Farage and his party, Reform has taken well over £10m from Harborne As Maddison Wheeldon ably reported for the Canary:

the super-rich have precious little appreciation for the value of money. However, it's abundantly clear to everyone else that no one donates over £10m unless they are going to get something of far greater value in return. The fact that he was "gifted" it prior to him becoming a politician is surely just indicative of the intention to get the far-right businessman a foothold in British politics.

Farage could face a by-election if the investigations don't go his way He could potentially face much worse:

Farage *may* avoid prison for what is publicly known. But I'm certain if he is fully investigated he'll end up serving 10 years min.

Now, it seems like Farage wasn't the only one who may have failed to declare gifts from Harborne.

Boris Johnson

According to Carole Cadwalladr Johnson is accused of breaching the same parliamentary rules that Farage is being probed over. She added:

Harborne provided his private jet & pilot to Johnson in Jan 2023, after he'd resigned as PM but when still an MP.

There is no record of the gift in Johnson's Register of Members Interests.

Cadwalladr highlighted that Harborne also handed Johnson £1m after he stepped down as PM something we covered previously

Johnson flew to Poland en route to meeting Zelenskyy in Kyiv.

And Harborne didn't just supply the jet. The leaked schedule notes he went too.

And he had his own interest in Ukraine. He was & still is the largest individual shareholder in UK defence company, QinetiQ Harborne is threatening to sue for defamation, by the way. His lawyers have not explained what was defamatory, though, so we can't tell you which bit is supposedly inaccurate.

More of the same

This latest revelation is a further sign that there's no difference between the Tories and Reform UK. Well, no difference besides the fact that Johnson didn't get pulled up when he was still an MP, anyway. The same might not prove true for Farage, and we're looking forward to him getting forced out of office if things don't go his way.
