

OU debate proceeds tonight with banned anti-genocide speakers attending virtually

Description

default watermark

Oxford Union

The Oxford Union (OU) has announced that its planned debate will proceed tonight, 6 June 2026, at 6pm. The two invited speakers banned by Keir Starmer for speaking against Israel's genocide will participate virtually:

The event will be held in our Chamber on the 6th of June, at 6 pm BST.

Both speakers will be attending virtually. pic.twitter.com/cCPTq9TXIm

â?? Oxford Union (@OxfordUnion) June 5, 2026

Oxford Union censorship concerns

The OU has not yet published a link for the debate, but usually streams debates on its YouTube channel. However, it is currently being sued by Palestinian-American writer Susan Abulhawa for deleting key parts of her 2024 debate.

Featured image via OU

By Skwawkbox

Source link

CATEGORY

1. News

POST TAG

1. antigenocide
2. attending
3. banned
4. debate
5. news
6. proceeds
7. speakers
8. tonight
9. virtually
10. with

Category

1. News

default watermark