

Set car on fire, threaten residents? 20 months. Anti-genocide protester? 6yrs+

Description

default watermark

Far-right

Two Middlesbrough women who set a car on fire in the street stole property and intimidated innocent local people during far-right riots received jail term of 20 and 22 months. They are already back out on the streets. Anti-genocide protesters who damaged weapons used to murder Palestinian civilians have been jailed for 6 years or more despite being found to have no violent intent. They were held in prison for longer before trial than Megan Davison was sentenced to:

View this post on Instagram

A post shared by Scott (@thebearded_skot)

default watermark

Far-right snowflakes

The far-right loves to moan about "two-tier policing". It thinks its the victim. But the victims are those slaughtered and purged by the Israeli colony and those the British state targets for opposing Israel's crimes.

Featured image via Finnbar Webster/Getty Images

By Skwawkbox

Source link

CATEGORY

1. News

POST TAG

1. 6yrs
2. antigenocide
3. car
4. fire
5. months
6. news

- 7. protester
- 8. residents
- 9. set
- 10. threaten

Category

- 1. News

default watermark